Ivyland Presbyterian Church Full-Time Pastor

The Ivyland Presbyterian Church pastor shall as a minimum, but not limited to, take on these responsibilities:

Worship

- a. Plan the Order of Worship working collaboratively with music and worship committees
- b. Prepare and preach thoughtful, scripturally sound sermons, as led by the Holy Spirit in a way that connects with people's everyday lives
- c. Utilize lay members of the church to lead the church in worship
- d. Administer the sacraments as approved by the session
- e. Prepare for and conduct weddings, baptisms and funeral services as requested

Pastoral Care

- a. Regularly visit the sick, shut-in, and those hospitalized
- b. Counsel individuals and families in spiritual need or crisis, as well as parents seeking baptism for their children and couples preparing for marriage
- c. Welcome church visitors
- d. Comfort grieving families

Teaching Role, Leadership Development

- a. Nurture and encourage spiritual growth and leadership within the church and enable the congregation to carry the message of God's love to the community
- b. Teach weekly Bible Study
- c. Provide guidance for the Christian education program, including leading confirmation classes as needed
- d. Instruct the leaders of the church in their spiritual growth and practical duties
- e. Lead congregation to plan its vision for the future

Administration, Support, Presbytery

- a. Serve as moderator of all session and congregational meetings, train newly elected elders and deacons as needed.
- b. Oversee music and support staff. Meet with Personnel committee no less than every six (6) months for a performance review
